Dear PSAB Champions within the Federal Government,

I am writing today with profound admiration and heartfelt gratitude to express my deepest appreciation for the unwavering support and guidance you have provided me throughout my journey towards the Indigenous Incubator Inc. Over the past two decades, several remarkable individuals have played pivotal roles in assisting me, and I would like to extend my sincere gratitude.

Firstly, I want to express my deepest gratitude to Gord Purcell, Delores Coelho, and Mary-Lynn Stepan. Two decades ago, your unwavering support and assistance were instrumental in navigating the complexities of the PSAB agreement. Your belief and dedication to promoting Indigenous entrepreneurship have left an indelible mark in my life. Your wisdom and guidance have empowered me to overcome challenges and work towards creating opportunities for Indigenous entrepreneurs.

More recently, I would like to express my appreciation to Kris Ruiters with Procurement Assistance Canada. Your knowledge and guidance in maneuvering the new government sites have been invaluable. Your commitment to ensuring that Indigenous voices are heard and represented is truly commendable. Your unwavering support has been a source of inspiration and has helped me navigate the ever-changing landscape of government policies and processes.

Furthermore, I would like to extend my personal gratitude to John Giraldez, Director of the PSAB Team and to Lori Counsell, Andrew Webster, Mark Smith, and Justin Bennett of DCC. Your strong spirit and enthusiasm in reconciling Canada through supporting Indigenous entrepreneurs have made a profound impact on Canada. Your dedication to fostering Indigenous entrepreneurship and providing resources and opportunities to companies like Stag Construction Solutions Ltd and now the Indigenous Incubator Inc is deeply appreciated. Your tireless efforts in helping me and my son, Jeremy, have been instrumental in building a brighter future for my family and the families of the people we work with.

Today, I want to express my gratitude to all of you, the PSAB champions within the Federal Government. Your unwavering commitment, dedication, and belief in the power of Indigenous entrepreneurship have made a lasting impact on my life and the lives of countless others. Your efforts to reconcile Canada and create opportunities for Indigenous entrepreneurs are truly commendable, and I am forever grateful for your support.

Respectfully,
